Hotel Accommodations:

No room block is available for this holiday weekend. You may contact the hotel directly but you may want to try others in the area. All are pricey. There is a Homeward Suites next door; LaQuinta, Hilton Garden Inn and others nearby. Google for more as some are selling out already. (You will need to make hotel accommodations directly)

Bio: If you would like to share a brief bio of your recent years, i.e., how many grandchildren, what industry you worked in, volunteer work, how many years you are married, retired, etc. (If you filled out before I have kept it, but may be best to complete again. Just make a note on here – use prior info sent)

Please mail this form, along with your check no later than May 5, 2023, paid in full
